Why Should You Sponsor?

2022 finds the wood pellet industry vibrant, healthy and optimistic about near term growth opportunities. The industry is being pushed by the tailwinds of a long-sought appliance tax credit and rapidly expanding consumer interest in wood pellet grilling and smoking. Wood pellet producers are investing in additional capacity, enhanced packaging lines and new product development. The 2022 PFI Annual Conference will bring together professionals representing nearly three fourths of the domestic wood pellet sector offering sponsors an unparalleled opportunity to connect with key decisions makers and grow their business.
